Bizu is a French comic book series created for Spirou 1967 by Jean-Claude Fournier. The last book in the series was released in 1994. Bizu is a goblin who lives in the forest of Brocéliande, an enchanted world where magic and witchcraft abound. Bizu is accompanied everywhere he goes by Mukes, a talking mushroom. Then there's also Schnockbul, Bizu's neighbor, a strange black goblin with red fur, who speaks with a distinctive lisp, is an excellent musician, and plants flowers everywhere he goes. A charming classic.
