When Jean Roba created “Boule et Bill” in 1959, no one could have imagined that 60 years later this little boy in a yellow t-shirt and overalls and his cocker spaniel would still be in our hearts and that their adventures would continue to make people of all ages laugh.

For the 60th anniversary of “Boule et Bill”, Christelle and Bertrand Pissavy-Yvernault retrace the career of one of the greatest authors of Franco-Belgian comics. This book will contain beautiful illustrations from sketches to watercolour paintings, highlighting Jean Roba’s incredibly rich and poetic universe.
