These compilations narrate the adventures of Chlorophylle the dormouse and his young mouse friend Minimum, who stands by his side in his battles against the formidable Anthracite, the leader of the Black Rats. This power-hungry rodent is desperate to get rid of Chlorophylle, the only thing standing between him and his invasion of the Quiet Vale. The first collection contains all of Macherot's most beloved themes, with magnificent countryside settings and a host of classic detective and fantasy based plotlines. This collection also contains a number of previously unpublished drawings, as well as an extra 40 pages from Jacques Pessis.
