Work harder, earn more... or work less and try not to get caught? Open Space is a vitriolic portrait of contemporary life at work: interdepartmental wars, calcified hierarchies, exploited and underpaid interns. In 46 hilarious pages, James takes on hidebound bosses, incompetent technicians, laid-off HR specialists, cynical financial officers, oafish vendors, self-satisfied managers and all the power struggles that make the world of business such a wonderful place.
