A young woman, highly trained in the art of war — and with considerable charm — is ordered by the CIA to infiltrate the Mafia. Her aim is to uncover connections between various criminal organisations, multinational corporations and powerful political groups.

In this first volume, a French oil company has bribed politicians to stage a coup in an African territory dependent on Angola. Writer Jean Claude Bartoll, a TV journalist, has produced numerous reports on the Colombian drug cartels. He is also a marvellous storyteller, who specializes in investigating the hidden workings of the world. Artist Renaud Garreta, the author of Fox One, is also a storyboarder for the advertising industry and for cinema.
