Sharp mind, expert swordsman, the knight of Eon is an icon of sexual ambiguity and one of the greatest mysteries of our history. The controversy over his gender made up some of the most juicy gossip of the eighteenth century. But his history was only glamorous at the beginning. He was the androgynous spy just as comfortable in a skirt than in his captain dragons uniform, travelling to and from Russia and England on behalf of Louis XV, but his dedication to this hot-headed and unsure of himself king will bring more trouble than good fortune ...
