Ducobu is a lovable clown, a bit of a rascal, and notoriously lazy. A “quality” that is not without its downsides... You have to be smart to avoid the humiliating dunce’s hat! And, of course, his neighbor Léonie knows everything about everything. But this little madam detests copy-cats, which leaves Ducobu with no choice but to invent ever-more ambitious cheating strategies. Brilliant and full of imagination, Ducobu could of course study just a little bit... but that would be too easy! With a collection of irresistible gags, Godi and Zidrou have created a touching series, and a true ode to freedom and imagination.
