At the age of seven, Pavel was imprisoned along with his parents. Here, in the gulag, he soon learnt the meaning of the expression 'hell on earth'. Separated from his family, he had to learn to survive alone. Years later, he's learned the rules of this world all too well: the never-ending violence, the utter callousness of the guards, the absolute power of the gang leaders. He knows that being tough simply isn't enough. Thanks to his talents as a tattoo artist, he obtains the protection of Kiril the Whale, the cruelest of the gang chiefs. But any deal with the devil comes at a price...
