One day, Ulysses and Méditerranée meet by chance at the gynecologist's office. She has an appointment, and he's waiting for his son, the doctor. The two sixty-somethings feel an immediate connection. Working together for the first time, the legendary Zidrou and the young Dutch artist Aimée De Jongh offer up an ode to life as they present the touching rebirth of two people who thought their lives were winding down... only to discover that they were only just beginning!
