The discovery of "Miss January," a corpse sinisterly posed to look like a Playboy model, sends shockwaves through Los Angeles. And when the newspapers receive a photo of Miss February, Inspector Clegg realizes that there must be a serial killer at work. With each month that goes by, he is one step closer to losing his career; a pressure also felt by Viktor, a young and high-flying female burglar, who receives a letter declaring that she will be Miss October! Together, they dive into the murky depths of the City of Angels in a desperate shot at putting an end to this macabre calendar...
