It was a hopeless world, a world without rain and crops, ruled by lords of war and their barbarous hordes. In this cruel world, Noé is a wealthy man. He is not only a seasoned soldier but also a sorcerer and a healer. He only wanted peace for his family and himself. However, every night, Noé's sleep is disturbed by visions of an endless flood, symbolizing the destruction of any kind of life. Bit by bit, he started to understand the message the Creator was sending him; he had decided to punish men and exterminate them all. But he was giving Noé a last chance to preserve life on earth...

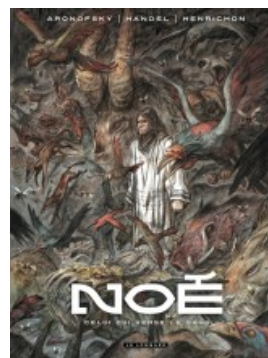

In this series
