He's called 'The Private Eye of the Jet Set.' With a handsome face that's matched by his steely nerve, Tony Corso has made the area of Saint-Tropez his base. It's there that he follows investigations that are not always very clear: the waters of the deep blue sea are sometimes murky.

In Saint-Tropez, he doesn't lack clients: show biz stars, businessmen, politicians, dictators-in-exile, Mafiosi – a real parade of characters! Tony knows how to be discreet and works alone. But he knows everyone, especially in the nightclubs, trendy bars and all the other hot spots where the beautiful people mingle. Olivier Berlion proves his amazing know-how with his signature scenarios and designs of this modern and promising detective novel.
