It is 1997. Twenty years have passed since the crash of flight 'Corsair 512' in the Amazonian jungle. But Destiny is catching up with each of the survivors of this accident! One after the other, they are assassinated, kidnapped, reported missing. However, International opinion is more interested in the nomination of the new president of the World Peace Organisation, suspected to have been one of the torturers of the death camps. Nevertheless, there is a link between both affairs...
