The Paris of 1920. Alexandre, a boy who works every day at the La Villette slaughterhouse, gives up his apron, leaves the orphanage and hits the road. With his bundle on his shoulder, he dreams of America and adventure. After a week's walk, he reached the port of Brest. There, he embarks. But he doesn't know that the ship is overrun by Schmolls. Fortunately, Alexandre is not a coward; fortunately, Alexandre will cross paths with Élisabeth...
