Rosebud, Montana, 1989.

Gavin, age 20, turns himself into the police with a shocking confession: he's killed his stepfather, mother, and two stepsiblings. As he reveals the events of the days leading up to the crime and the reasons that pushed him to commit this unforgivable act, what starts out as a simple interrogation for Detective Dumond gradually descends into a dark and phantasmagorical tale in which no one is truly innocent.

Are you ready to learn the horrible truth?

Immerse yourself even more deeply in the world of Arcadium by listening to the Christine EP, available through the QR code included in the graphic novel.
