Most of you will have been in hospital as a patient, without really suspecting what happens behind the screens. Be thankful you didn't! Because if you choose to believe Bercovici and Cauvin, the little world of surgeons, nurses, doctors and other specialists in the trade is far from lacking in dedication, cynicism, imagination or sheer madness! Not to mention those 'little blunders' that casually threaten the lives of the patients. A series of gags based on this clinical world that needs all the humor it can get so as not to lose its head!
