It's 2075, and Julius Stileman, a scientific genius, manages to develop a process capable of rejuvenating the human body. This scientist is also a brilliant businessman who, after having filed a patent on his treatment, becomes very powerful. His conditions are strict, yet simple: the minimum price is one million pounds!

The treatment stops working after ten years, therefore the patient has ten years to rebuild a fortune and buy a new cure... Dallas Barr is Stileman's best friend. Now at 132 years old, he is the second oldest man in the world, and he is also believed to be an expert in delicate and dangerous missions. In exchange for the treatment which will extend his life for another ten years, Stileman is willing to do anything. A re-edition of this classic science fiction comic by Marvano and Haldeman, exploring the darkest depths of humanity...
