Mira is one of the ETERNELS, the secret service of the diamond industry – doubtless the best in the world – capable of tracking thieves from one end of the planet to the other and of killing them without hesitation. But Mira has just disappeared. In order to find her killers, the agency asks her twin sister, Uma, to take her place. But the world never meant Uma for this job. Suicidal, awkward, and with low self-esteem, there's nothing heroic about her, but she soon realises she has to change. Illustrating a dark and edgy script by Yann, Meynet shows us the full measure of his talent.
