Big news! One of the greatest names in French rap, Rik'm from 113, the founder of Maghreb United, joins with Régis Hautière — to whom we owe Le Dernier Envol — and an Argentinian cartoonist, Walther Taborda, in this totally original new comic. From his experience of growing up in the housing projects, Rim'k weaves a clever detective story, free of clichés and self-indulgence, based around the lives of four youths who get caught up in political scheming. A funny yet powerful story.
