Grand Est

By Biancarelli & Robert

A disillusioning drive through modern-day France. With hardly any points on his license, Denis Robert plans to do an internship at the Moselle Automobile Club. A confrontation with young misfits leads him to take to the road with his 8-year-old son for a ride through the great East, on the trail of deindustrialization. It's a road movie, a documentary about France after the crisis, a touching story about father-son relationships... but most of all, it is a delightfully human story.
