In the novel on which this work is based, George Sand tells the story of Indiana, a young woman who starts a passionate yet disappointing affair during her failed marriage. In prologue and epilogue of this graphic adaptation, the authors examine Indiana's story in the context of George Sand's life.

After their adaptation of the classic "La Princesse de Clèves," Catel and Claire Bouilhac have crafted an adaptation of the first—feminist—novel by one of the greatest French authors of the 20th century, George Sand.
