Twice upon a time, there was a poor little squirrel who dreamed of becoming a gallant knight, and a savage girl who grew up in the woods and was looking for love. The former was transformed into a man by a sorceress, but his heart and soul were poisoned with human vanity. The latter discovered the dark secrets of a seductive king, and how desire can lead to terrible sacrifices. This is the life of forest-dwellers. This is the dance of souls born of Yann and Hausman's minds.
