"All love stories end badly." This will never be true of Nills and Anaëlle! But Nills' naivety shields him from reality, and during a getaway with Anaëlle and her family at their country house, a darker dimension of their relationship will emerge. Burdened with a deeply buried secret, Anaëlle fears the consequences if Nills were to find out. But fate will inevitably open the doors to the past, and one thunderous night, strange creatures will come and whisk her away into their world. When Nills decides to dive into this other world to save his beloved, he does not yet know that it will change his life.
