The last graphic novel in the “English Literature” trilogy by Jean Harambat. Following his spy comedy and mystery novel, the master storyteller turns his attention to the action adventure, featuring actress Peg Woffington. She and her sidekick are two lovable anti-heroes, racing through the twirling streets of London filled with pirates in search of the most precious literary treasure of all: a lost play by William Shakespeare! Peg dreams of having a big role, and this play might be her chance!
