Laiyna, daughter of serfs and an orphan at too young an age, is adopted by the little people of enchantment, and raised in accordance with their magical rites. The beast that saved her from the brutish soldiers of Vurthe, the stone fortress, watches over the little savage. From that moment on, there is peace in the profundity of the enchanted domains. Until the crazy wars of men almost disrupts the harmony of the legendary elves, up to the point that the spells dry up and that the twilight of the elves turns into night.
