Young Alice wants nothing to do with the religiosity and social ambitions of her immediate family. What's more, she finds their daily lives unbearably dreary and depressing. Her sole desire: leave them and join the animals in the Valley of the Wolves. For ever since her youth, she has been fascinated by the wolves and the legends associated with them. Alice will abandon her stuffy inner world in favor of the magical creatures of the woods. The drama that unfolds when she meets a boy who's been wandering ageless in the Valley for a thousand years is the crux of this majestic graphic novel.
