Zaki is a daydreamer and adventurer. But his thirst for daring, alongside his best friend Choco, is hard to satisfy in the quiet little village of Saint-Isidore. That is, until the arrival of a storyteller named Anacharsis, who begins a tale of pirates on the high seas. But when he is forced to leave before finishing his story, Zaki and Choco decide to take matters into their own hands, sneaking into the storyteller's room to crack open his book of tales. There they are come upon by Mélie and her little sister Loulou, marking the start of an adventure that the four of them will never forget, as they discover the power of the storybook, and the jealousy it will spark...
