In Victorian Britain, Christopher lives with his father and little sister Mary in a country village. His mother died giving birth to Mary, and when his sister is carried off one night by a terrifying creature, Christopher must summon all his courage to try to save her. With the help of Morrigan, the local madwoman, he sets out to find Mary and together they fly to the Kingdom Beyond, a supernatural world inhabited by the souls of the dead... There, everything is strange and frightening, and Christopher must overcome his fears, acquire new skills, make new friends, and learn about love, trust, and what it really means to be brave.
