A dark and powerful tale, as cruel as death, and as ambiguous as life itself. The protagonists find themselves entangled in affairs of love, despair, sex, betrayal and madness. In order to attain the everlasting life that obsesses him, the king of the realm must eat the flesh of the most valiant of his three sons. To give his sons back the life he has stolen from them, the king must accept death, and also the women inherently connected to the gift, and the loss, of existence.
