The Research Centre for Supernatural Phenomena is a discrete institution whose mission is to fight against the occult phenomena that appear everywhere on our planet. On the day that young Alexia arrives at the RCSP, her life will change drastically. She is a novice but gifted exorcist, with poor mastery of her powers, which will nevertheless become the main tools of her trade... but also the source of her problems! Surrounded by the greatest specialists in occult sciences, our heroine will conduct real police investigations... in which the classic criminals are replaced by the forces of evil! In order to fight more effectively against her enemies, Alexia will have to go to Yorthopia, a mythical country gathering together all knowledge of the occult. Just one small problem: the only known way in is in 'Zone 85', an RCSP building that has been put under a fearsome bewitchment...
