Ten-year-old Lina lives in two different houses: her mother's, in 2020, and her father's, in 1910. She travels between the two eras and her two lives using a bridge hidden right at the heart of Paris. Not an easy secret to keep! Especially when her father finds himself in grave danger from the rising waters of the river Seine. Worried for her papa, she grows careless, rousing the suspicions of not only her new classmate Gus, but also two nasty crooks...
