Blundering explorer Max is no stranger to foreign lands. On his travels, he has discovered an Egyptian civilisation in the jungle, a wizard who turns people into potatoes and a kingdom where the king is whoever is the fattest. Although Max's adventures have been the subject of several full-length colour books, he will be best remembered for his black and white comic strip, which gained popularity all over the world thanks to its publication in almost 40 newspapers in nearly 40 countries. Max is truly a global celebrity, a first in the history of comics!

« En somme vous pensez que le mythe est inséparable de la fabrication en série ?
De la réapparition, dans d'innombrables bandes, des mêmes personnages ?

— Exactement. Il ne me vient pas à l'esprit un personnage qui ne serait apparu qu'une seule fois sur l'écran et qui serait devenu un mythe . »

Paul Grimault
