A very sensitive story, somewhere between graphic novel and tale of initiation! As they are moving out, Nora's parents leave their daughter at her uncle's house in the middle of the countryside. Very unhappy and bored at first, the young girl spends her time with a pregnant cat and finds a shelter in a huge tree. From there, she watches the surroundings and notices a lonely old woman... Many questions cross Nora's mind: why is this woman alone? What is she waiting for? Where are we before birth? Imaginary people living in the tree, as well as her uncle, will try to guide the young girl through her thought process.
