Percevan and Kervin are the heroes of this medieval fantasy series, populated by beautiful princesses, wicked wizards and malicious enchanters. The valiant knight Percevan is always ready to leap into action to defend a good cause, together with his plump, grumbling and somewhat cowardly companion Kervin, always on the lookout for something to eat. The third member of the team is a funny little animal called Guinly, who could be a cross between a marmot and a squirrel. Humour, adventure and fantasy make this the perfect series for all ages.
