Bristol, 1817. When a pretty young girl shows up dressed in rags and speaking an incomprehensible patois, the good people of Bristol see nothing more than another neck for the gallows. All, that is, except Mrs Worrall, the wife of a local judge, who, believing the girl to be a lost Javanese princess, invites her into her home. As for Inspector Jim Darrow, he hasn't made up his mind... There are still too many unanswered questions surrounding this mysterious young woman who has yet to utter a single word...
