Once upon a time, there was a Princess, a Fairy and a Mermaid... What ??? Again??? No, no, it's not quite that... Our three heroines take us on an adventure as absurd as it is sororal, a story of friendship and emancipation.

Princess, Fée and Sirène are faced with a few problems when we meet them: Princess can't stand her big dress any more, Sirène urgently needs to find some water, and Fée is fed up with having to use her magic at the drop of a hat to do everyone a favour. What they have in common is a desire to be free, a desire to discover the wide world, a keen awareness that unity and support will make them strong... and an immoderate taste for the absurd and the bizarre. That's all it takes to decide to set up a shared flat that looks like an ideal micro-republic: flat-shore.
