Louise lives a quiet life, mostly alone and busy with her studies. Then, one winter's day, she meets the woman in the apartment next door—a little old lady with bundles of energy, a constant smile on her lips, and endless stories to tell. Stories of ice skates and woolly scarves, of the power of love and the meaning of flowers, of growing up and learning to ride a bike... Month by month as winter gives way to spring, the two women enjoy sharing their present lives and past memories—memories that become less and less clear...
