Somewhere deep in California at the beginning of the 20th century, Cole Hupp lives apart from the world, waiting for the end. But when it comes to the Grim Reaper, it's Vivienne, a librarian curious about the reality of the Wild West, who knocks on his door. She knows his real name: Red Dust, a legend written in the dust and blood of Wyoming. Vivienne is the bearer of disturbing news. The Triple 6 ranch, the scene of Red's many feats of arms, has gone quiet. The old cowboy has no choice but to return to his past. A journey backwards, strewn with ghosts and regrets, at the end of which he hopes to see again the woman he has never been able to forget, Comanche.
