“You’ll be a man, my son...” The journey of a young man who dreams of becoming the wrestling champion of the world. For his tenth birthday, Tobias is taken to see a competitive wrestling gala. Thanks to his grandfather, who knows everyone, he’s even able to visit behind the scenes. Enthralled, Tobias decides that, when he grows up, he will become the wrestling champion of the world. So he gets to work, under the amused and benevolent eye of his grandfather. At the same time being careful, of course, to hide his dream from his mother. Grown up, Tobias still has the same passion and the same goal. With the aid of Eduardo Gonzales, a former professional wrestler, Tobias takes his first steps into the ring, first as a wrestler in training and then as a professional. While he is still hesitating between choosing a drab, normal life and a thrilling, unstable one full of glory and bruises, Tobias suddenly and painfully loses both his mother and his grandfather. Now nothing stands between him and his passion. After a chance encounter with a Japanese wrestler, Tobias leaves for Japan, where his style amazes the audience. There, he’ll meet a friend, and also the charming Miyuki, an aspiring actress – and, as it happens, the daughter of a Yakuza mobster. Will Tobias succeed in realizing his dream: to become the world wrestling champion? And what happens once you’ve achieved your dreams ?
