Saint Seiya, the one everyone knows, but against an all-new adversary! Chronos, the god of time, wants to become the 13th primordial deity of Olympus, like Hades, Poseidon, Athena, and the others. For that to happen, he needs to build a Doomsday clock which will allow him to change the past, present, and future as he sees fit. To be prudent, the god of time hides his tracks: he only acts in epochs different from legend (before the Sanctuary until after Hades) to avoid attracting attention from the other gods. He is supported by the Lepta army (young knights) commanded by his powerful generals, the 12-hour knights. With the help of these loyal and ferocious warriors, Chronos is convinced that everything is going according to plan, but he didn't take into account the knights of Athena!
