In the Red Marches, a barbarian land where the only law is that the strongest prevails, the most feared and respected of all fighters are the terrible « Riders ». The most dangerous among them is the hardened veteran Sian Lorient. Accompanied by Cass, the young mechanic who maintains his armor, he roams through war-torn countries, offering his services to whoever will pay the most. Despite his desire to keep out of political games, he will soon find himself plunged into a bloody religious war...
