"Six-Coups" is a collection of interrelated short stories following the lives of six different characters. Eliot, a sheriff's son, has so far failed to share his father's passion for guns. He would much prefer to just hang out with Bianca, his feisty and rebellious best friend. And then there's Albert and Mity, two crooks in the making. In this trigger-happy little town, there are plenty more intriguing characters to be met. The adventures begin when Eliot's father gives him a gun...
