Nate is a normal boy... except that when he's asleep, his nightmares become real! In order to not fall asleep, and to keep his parents and his sister safe, Nate lives on coffee. But his nightmares continue even when he's awake, also bringing with them flying clocks and strange creatures that invade the earth. Gradually, human beings fall into some sort of a coma and Nate's family is in mortal danger. In an attempt to save them, Nate decides to leave home, but will he manage to find out why these things are happening and finally be able to live a normal life?
