Portugal, 1960s: the country remains under the thumb of authoritarian Prime Minister Salazar.

Far from the tensions casting a pall over the country, a young doctor from Lisbon has led a calm life up until now. But when he is sent to care for prisoners of the regime, he finds himself confronted with the harsh reality of a dictatorship he can no longer ignore. To do nothing is to enable, and he soon has no choice but to join the Portuguese resistance.
