Théodore Poussin, inadvertent adventurer, answering the call of the winds and of distant lands, sets off into the world of omnibus editions. An ideal chance to rediscover this character created in the early 80s for the Journal de Spirou. Franck Le Gall, champion of clear lines, worked with Théodore Poussin to create a character that stands out in the classic adventure comic. Based on the author's grandfather, the main character is dragged, almost against his will, into a quest that will take him to the end of the world, with the strange shadow of November hot on his heels.
