Wayne Shelton, American - commissioned by Mr. Quayle, president of the Texas Investment Trust, has been asked to help a French lorry driver to escape from the Zaporitska fortress in Kalakjistant, where he was imprisoned following an accident which caused the death of a Russian general. This escape should allow the lifting of the embargo issued by France, following this incident and thus make it possible for Quayle to exploit a new rare resource: germanium. But in this adventure, it is necessary to be wary of the competitors who would do anything to break up the operation.
